John Huddleston

Letter from Lucinda T. Evans to Laura K. Thomas, March 11, 1933

"Mrs. B. K. Sessions of Columbus, Mississippi, in looking up some records for me found this,"

"The clerk of the County Court of Lowndes County, State of Mississippi is at liberty to grant marriage license to Benjamin Tommer and my daughter Lucinda Huddleston.
Given under my hand this twenty-ninth day of April, Eighteen hundred and thirty-three.

John Huddleston."

(They were married on May 2, 1833)

Letter from E. R. Hopkins--First Columbus National Bank, March 24, 1933 to Laura Kendall Thomas.

"I found from record of Chancery Court Clerk's office of Lowndes County, Mississippi, that John Huddleston invested in Lowndes County land February 10, 1832. Land situated on and Lazapalila Creek. Was known for many years as Huddleston's Ford and Huddleston's Springs.

Mrs. Laura Kendall Thomas

427 Hill Avenue

Elmhurst, Illinois

Dear Madam;

I have searched the records of this office very carefully and the only record of John Huddleston is his marriage on January 18th, 1823 to Miss Sarah Curry. Ceremony performed by John Miles a Justice of the Peace.

Yours truly,

(Mrs.) Bertie B. Stenbridge,

Ordinary.

Obituary of Thomas J. Huddleston

East Lucas Township, near Iowa City, Iowa

Thomas J. Huddleston: Highly respected for his excellent qualities as a neighbor, friend, and citizen. In his early manhood Mr. Huddleston was engaged in the mercantile business at Mobile in the flush times of Alabama, when that State was enjoying its greatest prosperity. This was in the palmy days of the South when slave labor was producing millions in wealth and cotton was beginning to assert its claim as king. In the busy marts of the then growing and prosperous seaport of Mobile the subject of this sketch laid the foundation for that methodical, careful and upright career of life which ever afterward characterized him and made him so honored and loved in every community where his lot was cast. Quiet and unobtrusive, he was patient in his research after the right and when he had arrived at a conclusion, it was the result of judgement and not of impulse.

Industrious to a fault, he found time to keep pace with the news and public events of the day. In the discharge of public duties imposed on him by his neighbors and not sought after by himself, he was a model officer. His official accounts were full clear and correct to a cent. His penmanship was a marvel of regularity and beauty and would put to shame the numerous scrawls which deface many of the public records of this country. He was by nature a business man, who, had he followed in the great channels of trade, would have ranked among the great capitalists of the nation: But he loved home and its quiet associations: and as one dear child and then another was taken, he and his excellent wife, who survives him, withdrew from the busy, bustling world and surrounded by a few intimate friends, quietly awaited the summons to join the loved ones who had gone before. For him the call to go, had no terrors, the way no shadows.

With the weight of some three score and ten years upon him, he drew the drapery of his couch about him, and was gathered to his fathers, leaving an irreproachable name as an inheritance to those who sorrow for his departure.

Yesterday all that was mortal of him was laid beside the ashes of a son and daughter in the silent city. The same September sun that at his birth glinted and gleamed among the pine clad forests of ~~this~~ his early southern home bringing joy and gladness to happy parents: bathed in radiant splendor, the lovely landscape of his last earthly home and as sorrowing friends followed him to his last resting place.

Dr. Folson delivered touching and appropriate remarks at the residence. The sorrowing wife and children have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in this time of sadness.

Thomas J. Huddleston, born September 27, 1816 near Milledgeville, Georgia. died August 29, 1887
near Iowa City, Iowa. buried Oakland Cemetery in Iowa City, Iowa.

Old Eagle Hotel Columbus, Mississippi

Mrs. Lucinda Tommer Evans, 33 North Maple Avenue in Ridgewood, New Jersey writes on March 6, 1938 as follows: "My great grandfather, John Huddleston lived at Columbus, Mississippi and was proprietor of the Old Eagle Hotel. He was a man beloved and was affectionately called "Uncle John" He came to Mobile in 1848."

"My mother, Caroline Morse Huddleston told me many times that she remembered the stage coach stopping at the hotel when she lived there with her grandparents from Jan. 1844 to September 1848, after the death of her mother, Lydia Maria Doolittle, Wife of Thomas J. Huddleston". Laura K. Thomas March 24, 1938 D. D. Griffin, Clerk Chancery Court in Lowndes County, Mississippi writes as follows: "I beg to advise that the records of this office show the existence of the Old Eagle Hotel in Columbus. The location according to the map made in 1849 is Block one , North Main Street.

As to ownership I cannot say because it will take a lawyer to make and abstract in order to find the title".

Extract from State Historian
Georgia Department--Archives and History

I regret that the name of James Huddleston does not appear in the roster of the War of 1812. I do have a record of the service of John Huddleston and of an Isaac Huddleston, both of which you will find copied below.

Huddleston, John. Private, Captain John R. Gregory's Company of Cavalry, 5th regiment (frontier of Jones County) Aug 18 to Aug 22, 1813. (Military Records 1779--1838. Page 301)
1st Lieutenant, Company of 2nd class Militia, Jones County, November 11, 1814. (Executive Minutes 1814-15 page 140)

Huddleston, Isaac. Lieutenant, 302d District Company, Georgia Militia (Jones County) November 16, 1814.

(Executive Minutes 1814-15 page 143)

From Secretary of State Atlanta, Georgia.

I regret that there are no records in this office that would indicate the former residence of James Huddleston before coming to Georgia. In the list of drawers in the lottery of 1806, I find in Hancock County, the names Joseph, James, and William Huddleston, each entitled to two draws. However in the index of the actual grants of 1806 only the name of Robert Huddleston of Moon's District, Oglethorpe, County, and Isaac Huddleston of Barnes's District, Hancock, County, appear. The first received a lot in Wilkinson

County, and the latter in Baldwin, County. Robert Huddleston was granted 220 acres in Oglethorpe, County in 1805 but the head rights grants fail to give the name of the county in which the drawee lived.

In the lottery of 1820, William (Huddleston), Hudilston of Elbert County, drew a lot in Early County.
Jane Huddleston of Hancock County--lot in Early County.
Allen Huddleston of Merian County--lot in Appling County.
John S. Huddleston of Oglethorpe County--lot in Early Willis Huddleston of Oglethorpe County--lot in Irwin
George Huddleston of Oglethorpe County--lot in Appling.

We have an account against the State from William Huddleston for supplies furnished and a horse furnished for service. There are seven papers to account for these supplies.

The receipts on the back of the cancelled indent (an interest bearing check) with which the account was paid, show that James Huddleston received the interest for William Huddleston on one payment.

I can have photostats of these papers made for you for $2.50. The book marked on the enclosed Catalogue contains the printed stub entry to William's account.

He lived in that part of District Ninety-Six which was erected as Laurens County or Laurens District in the year of 1791.

~~Date~~ No. A912 Huddleston.

Died.

At his residence near Washington, Autauga County on Monday morning the 1st instant, James Huddleston Esquire, in the 68th year of his life. Mr. Huddleston was a very affectionate husband and kind and indulgent father. He was a native of Maryland, a participant in the revolution and was was and undeviating friend to his country.

For the last ten years he has been afflicted with a paralytic affliction, that rendered him almost helpless, he bore this with Christian fortitude and resignation. During the latter part of his illness he frequently repeated this passage of scripture: "O Death where is thy sting? O Grave where is thy victory?" A short time before his death he requested his children to read the 10th verse of the 41st Chapter of Isaiah: after which he calmly expired and his spirit fled to that house not made of hands, eternal in the heavens.

Last Will and Testament of James Huddleston

"In the name of God, amen."

Know all Men By These Presents.

That I, James Huddleston, of Autauga County, and of the State of Alabama, being in a weak state of body, but of a sound mind, and appreciating that my stay on earth will be but short, do make and ordain this as my last will and testament, which unless revoked or altered by some future will or codicil, is to remain in full force and virtue forever.

In the first place, it is my will and desire that all my children, viz: Jane Nelson, Isaac Huddleston, Charity Rice, John Huddleston, Charlotte Rice, Stacy Davis, William Huddleston, Joseph Huddleston and Elizabeth Ashley should be made equal in the sum of six hundred dollars each; having already paid to Jane Nelson four hundred, to Isaac Huddleston the full amount of six hundred, to Charity Rice six hundred, to John Huddleston six hundred, to Charlotte Rice five hundred, to Stacy Davis six hundred, to William Huddleston four hundred, To Joseph Huddleston nothing, and to Elizabeth Ashley one hundred and thirty-five dollars. The balance making up the six hundred dollars to each of my said children above named who have not received their full share, I wish to be paid from the sale of such property as my executors hereafter to be named may think best to be disposed of, should I not pay them previous to my death.

Last Will and Testament of James Huddleston.

It is m desire further that all the balance of the property after paying the legacies above named should remain in the possession of my wife, Susannah Huddleston all the ~~rest~~ of her life time for her support and comfort, which property she may dispose of in such a manner as she may think proper with the consent of my executors or they with hers.

It is my will further that all of my property remaining after the death of my wife, should be divided equally among all of my children, or their heirs, except Jane Nelson and Isaac Huddleston and the shares which would fall to them are to be theirs only during their lifetime, and then go to their heirs, but not subject to their disposal,

It is my wish further that sufficient property be sold to satisfy all of my just debts, and that the distribution of the property after the death of my wife shall be in such manner as my executors may think advisable, whether by sale or otherwise, and it shall extend to all my property both real and personal.

And I do here appoint John Huddleston, my son, and Thornton Rice my executors to carry into full effect this my last Will and Testament.

Huddleston Family

James Huddleston, his wife Elizabeth and their infant son, came from England to South Carolina about 1761.

About 1790 the family moved to Georgia, to what later became Hancock County.

About 1819, James² bought land from the United States Government in S.E. portion of Autauga County, Alabama. He died in his home near Washington, Alabama, December 1, 1828.

His son John moved to Lowndes County, Mississippi, near Columbus in 1832--to Mobile, Alabama in 1843 and DeLisle Harrison County, Mississippi in 1849--died there in 1862.

John's son Thomas Jefferson moved from Columbus, Mississippi to Clay County, Missouri about six miles S.W. of Liberty in 1846--to Weyth Township, Hancock County, Illinois in 1850 about 3 miles south of Warsaw--to Johnson County, Iowa in 1862--lived in Iowa City--later moved to a place East of town on Clarke Street, Lucas Township. Died here 1887.

Caroline married Nathaniel T. Wendell 1873 Keokuk, Iowa--came to Chicago to live--moved to Elmhurst, Illinois 1911. Died in 1926.
